Dear Sir!

Enclosed find a few old German Stamps, and a Note of Confederated Money and usual Note - if you could find some use of it, & let you have same As I don't know what it will be worth but I'll leave it to you. I also have a few byd. Old Envelopes Postmarked 1903 - and Postal Cards of same year and also several byd., of old German Stamps if you could make use of it.

You welcome to it. I scanned across some Information Ad-and it happened to see something about your Society.

If they are nothing worth of any Price, you may use them as a Souvenir in some way. I make you a present of it.

Hoping to hear from you anytime. Remain

Yours Respectfully

Dear Sir:

We beg to thank you very much for sending us the pieces of paper money and the stamps. Although these are worth virtually nothing, we can make use of them. In fact, we can make use of any such material as we depend almost wholly on contributions.

Again thanking you for your thought of our Society, I am,

Very truly yours,

Curator
